

Divorce & Separation Support Group

The transition divorce brings can be challenging to negotiate alone. Being a part of a group offers support and information as this new path unfolds.

Our focus is SUPPORT AND EDUCATION. The group size is 7-8 adults.

Common themes explored:

- This Transition
- Healing Challenging Situations
- Strengths
- Children's Process
- The Future
- Topics important to individual members

When: 6 weeks. Wednesdays, 7:00-9:00 p.m.
Next group begins February 25, 2009.

Fees: Established on a sliding scale.

Where: Family & Children Services, 375 Cambridge Avenue, Palo Alto
Cross street Birch Street. One block north of California Avenue's shops and restaurants.

For information and to sign-up, please call Nancy Klimp, MFT, at 650-326-6576 x 5503.

Since 1948 Family & Children Services (F&CS) has supported children, adults, and families in transition through our services on the Peninsula and in the South Bay. In addition to this support group, F&CS offers professional one-to-one, couples, and family COUNSELING SERVICES. Insurance is accepted; fees are set on a sliding scale. For confidential information, please call 650-326-6576.