

Divorce & Separation

Support Group

FAMILY &
CHILDREN SERVICES

The life transitions divorce brings can be challenging to negotiate alone.

Being a part of a group offers support, education, and useful information as this new path unfolds.

Explore, in a small group, themes such as:

- This transition
- Healing
- Challenging situations
- Strengths
- Children's process
- The future
- Topics important to individual members

This group is facilitated by Nancy Klimp, a marriage and family therapist with expertise in divorce and separation.

For information, please call Family & Children Services at 650-543-5407.

When:

Groups meet once a week for 8 weeks in the evening.

Groups are held throughout the year. Please call for details.

Fees:

Established on a sliding scale.

Preregistration is required. This is not a drop-in group.
