Featured Speaker

Leslie Morgan Steiner

Author and dynamic advocate for survivors of domestic violence

Ms. Steiner’s book Crazy Love was a New York Times bestseller and became the subject of her TED Talk, the first by a domestic violence survivor.

Honoree

Tasneem Ismailji, MD, MPH

Dedicated educator, advocate, and researcher studying the effects of violence and abuse on health
During the last year, more than 11,000 adults, teens, and children have benefited from Family & Children Services’ counseling, prevention, and support programs.

Our family violence and abuse prevention services empower parents and partners to end cycles of abusive behavior.

Event proceeds will strengthen our donation-funded victim services program and support prevention programs that address dating violence among teens.

2900 Sand Hill Road, Menlo Park

New for 2015!

This year’s event will be a luncheon! We also have selected a new location. We look forward to welcoming you to the beautiful Sharon Heights Golf & Country Club on Friday, May 1.

Underwriting Invitation

Help to ensure the success of this 12th annual event, co-chaired by Barbara E. Jones and Stephanie Hewitt, by becoming an Underwriter! Proceeds will benefit Family & Children Services of Silicon Valley’s work to break the cycle of family violence and abuse, especially through our Victim Support - WomenSV services (launched this January) and teen dating violence prevention services.

Pre-Event Film Screenings

Last fall, a few Circle of Support Luncheon Committee members attended a screening of the domestic violence documentary Private Violence. Moved by this powerful and informative film, the committee has chosen to host a few community screenings and discussions of the film. The first is being hosted in collaboration with the School of Social Work at San Jose State University and is scheduled for March 12 at the Martin Luther King Jr. Library.
